(TAPE 1)(SIDE A)(408) AGENDA ITEM NO. 5: COUNCIL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Williams expressed condolences, on behalf of the Lafayette City-Parish Council, to the family of Ms. Jeanette Guidry, a long-time member of the Lafayette Community. He then recognized Imani Temple #49, along with the LCG Recreation & Parks Department and the Administration, for co-sponsoring a youth rally for approximately 1,000 young people. He also commended Mr. Anthony Blackwell, Ms. Linda Williamson and Leanna Alfred, who lead a march for preventive violence from J. Wallace James Park to St. Paul’s Catholic Church. He announced that a news conference was held this date to announce the removal of HUD control over the local Housing Authority. The five Board of Directors were then sworn in by Judge Edward Rubin.

Williams then requested that Fire Chief Robert Benoit provide clarification on the issue of propane as it related to the Cajundome and the status. Chief Benoit stated that there is some conflict between the Fire Department and the Cajundome with regard to who has jurisdiction over enforcing codes within the dome. The National Fire Protection Agency, the State Fire Marshal’s office and the LPG Commission have been contacted regarding the jurisdiction and as far as he can interpret, the Fire Department has that jurisdiction under the Lafayette City-Parish Consolidated Government Code of Ordinances. He will be meeting with the Cajundome officials to discuss those issues in hopes of helping them understand what uses can be allowed in the dome. The only changes that can be made to the Code of Ordinances is by action of the Council to do differently.

Menard then commended Chief Robert Benoit, Chief Ronnie Boudreaux, Richard Broussard, Tiffany Soulier, City-Parish President Walter Comeaux and Staff and Fire Fighters and Police officers for their help and dedication to the 911 Memorial which was dedicated on September 11, 2002.
